Workshop Series Proposal

The NICE Consulting proposes a series of workshops to help foster a fulfilling, meaningful, and rewarding, experience for your team. This year-long agreement allows us to simplify providing training and support for clients while optimizing the effectiveness of our work together.

We love the opportunity to create deeper relationships, and to build on learnings year after year. Clients booking multiple years may opt to become partners and collaborate with the NICE on a deeper level.

Contact Nathan Jones, Lead Consultant, to explore creating a solutions package that will bring your ideas to life. on. Standard, sliding-scale, and non-profit rates are available. We will help you find a cost structure that works for you and your team.

Objective - Ideas Succeed

- Custom design a series of workshops which focus on positive and fun ways for team leaders to support each other and to inspire action in their community.
- Provide a practical set of tools, models, and skills which support team members in personal growth, building effective teams, and coordinating community initiatives.
- Support team leaders as they apply content from the workshops to their everyday challenges and aspirations as catalysts in the community.
